

YOU IMAGINE, WE CREATE

Carahsoft wanted to think Big!

They needed a new modern well branded display that was open, inviting and economical.

"We felt part of DSM's design process and enjoyed the collaborative approach. Our team narrowed down the options quickly and customized the design to our needs."

Lindsay Toma, Marketing

Large lightweight overhead signs were used to create a well branded booth space, and central anchor of their pavilion.

The open concept allowed up to eight vendor partners to showcase their technology using branded corner kiosks.
